

SESSION LAWS STATE OF ARIZONA

---

Thirty-ninth Legislature FIRST REGULAR SESSION

Convened—January 9, 1989

Sine Die—June 16, 1989

ARIZONA DEPT. OF LIBRARY
ARCHIVES & PUBLIC RECORDS

MAY 04 1990

1989

MEMORIALS AND RESOLUTIONS

Whereas, the Arizona Supreme Court is uniquely qualified to address this issue through adoption and modification of procedural rules for the courts of this state.

Therefore

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Arizona, the Senate concurring:

1. That the Legislature of the State of Arizona respectfully requests that the Arizona Supreme Court adopt and modify court rules for medical malpractice litigation relating to procedural and time limits on the pretrial discovery process, use of expert witnesses, specialized court divisions for medical malpractice cases, early mediation and settlement conferences, court approval of fees and expenses and any other matters deemed appropriate by the Court.

2. That the Secretary of State of the State of Arizona is requested to transmit copies of this Concurrent Resolution to each member of the Supreme Court of the State of Arizona.

Passed the House, April 25, 1989 by the following vote: 47 ayes, 9 nays, 4 not voting.

Passed the Senate, May 25, 1989 by the following vote: 29 ayes, 0 nays, 1 not voting.

Filed in the Office of the Secretary of State, May 26, 1989.

---

FRANK J. KELLEY

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION 2025

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

ON THE DEATH OF THE HONORABLE FRANK J. KELLEY.

The Honorable Frank J. Kelley, who served an unprecedented four terms as Speaker of the Arizona House of Representatives, died on Tuesday, November 15, 1988 at the age of sixty-five.

Speaker Kelley was known for his cordial manner and quiet ability to elicit cooperation in his many accomplishments for this State.

Mr. Kelley served as a Republican in the House for twenty-two years on numerous committees and in important matters of education and groundwater legislation.

He was the architect of the Governmental Mall Commission which led to a comprehensive development plan for the Capitol Complex and surrounding areas, including the Wesley Bolin Plaza. He also oversaw the institution and completion of the restoration of the old Capitol Building and its conversion into a fine museum.

As Speaker of the House he was an astute politician who streamlined procedures for bill introductions and processing.

Although Frank Kelley was reserved, his good-natured humor would easily surface in many situations such as the role he played of the jovial Irishman during the St. Patrick's Day presentations on the House floor.

Mr. Kelley was born in Mercer, Missouri in 1923 and was a graduate of Indianola High School in Iowa and received a Bachelor of Science Degree in Journalism from the University of Kansas. He was in newspaper work for ten years as a reporter and publisher of The Hutchinson News in Kansas.

He was a graduate of the United States Air Force Pilot School at Williams Air Force Base in Arizona and later was an account executive in advertising and public relations for Stephen Shadegg Associates, Inc. Frank Kelley was also a consultant for Samaritan Health Services for nineteen years.

MEMORIALS AND RESOLUTIONS

Frank Kelley gained experience in the 1950's as an employee of United States Senator Frank Carlson and Congressman William H. Avery and later he was the Executive Director of the Republican State Committee in Arizona.

Mr Kelley was a member of the American Legion, the American Society of Hospital Public Relations and Sigma Delta Chi, the Society of Professional Journalists. He was also a member of the Phoenix Press Club, the Tempe Republican Men's Club, the Kiwanis and the Elks.

Speaker Frank Kelley was a steady and able colleague in the many challenges he faced over two decades of service for all Arizonans.

He will be missed by his family, his many friends around the State, the Legislature and the people of Arizona.

Therefore

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Arizona, the Senate concurring:

That the members of the Legislature sincerely regret the passing of the Honorable Frank J. Kelley and extend their most sincere sympathies and condolences to his family.

Unanimously adopted by the House, April 18, 1989.

Unanimously adopted by the Senate, April 18, 1989.

Filed in the Office of the Secretary of State, April 19, 1989.

---

NATIONAL AVIATION POLICY

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION 1001

A JOINT RESOLUTION

URGING THE CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES TO ADOPT A PENDING RESOLUTION TO ESTABLISH A NATIONAL AVIATION POLICY FOR THE UNITED STATES.

Whereas, the national objectives of general welfare, economic growth and stability, and security of the United States require the development of transportation policies and programs that contribute to providing fast, safe, efficient and convenient transportation at the lowest cost consistent with other national objectives, including the efficient use and conservation of the resources of the United States, and it is in the national interest to encourage and promote the development of transportation systems embracing various modes of transportation that serve the nation, states and local communities efficiently and effectively; and

Whereas, the Constitution of the United States provides to its citizens the right to travel throughout the length and breadth of our land uninhibited by statutes, rules or regulations which unreasonably burden or restrict this movement; and

Whereas, a recent national survey of public attitudes toward aviation found that eighty-six per cent of the American public supports the development of a national aviation policy, and one which addresses the needs of all people who use or rely on air transportation in the United States; and

Whereas, the public interest is best served by an air transportation system that provides fast, safe, efficient, convenient and cost-effective