HOUSE RESOLUTION 7

A RESOLUTION

ON THE DEATH OF THE HONORABLE CARL SIMS.

On the twenty-eighth day of May, 1968, at the age of fifty-six, the Honorable Carl Sims, passed away in the City of Fresno, California.

Mr. Sims was a native of Bremond, Texas, and came to Arizona in 1927. He received his education in his native State of Texas.

During his many years in Arizona, Mr. Sims was active in many endeavors. He was one of Arizona's early champions of civil rights, believing in equality for all men in public places.

Mr. Sims enjoyed success in various fields. He served eight years in the County Highway Department, and also served with the Maricopa County Sheriffs' Office as a deputy sheriff. In later years, Mr. Sims' main occupation was that of a painting contractor.

Mr. Sims served with distinction in the Twentieth, Twenty-first, Twenty-second, Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth Legislatures of the Arizona House of Representatives during the period of 1951 through 1960. He served on several Standing Committees, including Livestock and Public Lands, Suffrage and Elections, Public Defense and Veterans' Affairs, Arizona Development Committee, Highways and Bridges Committee and Ways and Means Committee. During his long tenure in the Arizona House of Representatives, Mr. Sims is credited with the sponsorship and passage of bills on boating safety and the sponsorship of Arizona's first rabies control bill which became law in 1962.

Therefore

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Arizona:

That the members of the House of Representatives regret the passing of the Honorable Carl Sims, and do, therefore, extend condolences to the surviving members of his family.

Adopted by the House of Representatives—January 30, 1969.

Approved by the Governor—January 30, 1969.
